April 2025

O Lord, my heart is not lifted up, my eyes are not raised too high; I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvelous for me.

But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a child with its mother; my soul is like the child that is with me. O Israel, hope in the Lord from this time on and forevermore. Psalm 131

During the Wednesday evenings of Lent this year, we've been using this Psalm, Psalm 131, as the guiding principle for our thoughts. We've been talking of things like quieting our souls, quieting our appetites, quieting our consciences, etc. Quiet is not an easy discipline for us, as we're so accustomed to a noisy existence.

As part of my own "quieting" discipline this year, I've been trying to find time each day to get out and just walk... not run, which an angry Achilles tendon screams against my doing. For so many years I've been a slave to the watch and to hitting pace targets, and it's an entirely different experience for me to simply slow down and move intentionally, quietly, meditatively. (I still find myself checking my watch, comparing one day's walk with another, as though there are medals to be won from beating yesterday's walk time. I'm hopeless 😊) Not everyone is like this...

From the time he was little, my youngest son has been an "outside guy." As a preschooler he could spend hours in the back yard exploring or happily sitting in a snowbank in his snow suit, moving piles of snow from here to there with a little shovel. Just let him be outside, and all was well.

His fascination with the great outdoors and the wonders it holds meant that he was a "slow walker"... and still is. This can sometimes be an enervating thing if you're accompanying him and you yourself are more "destination oriented," like you know where you want to go and you're just trying to get there as fast as possible. Good luck with that, as he stops to look at that ground squirrel, or photograph that flower, or listen to that bird, or...

John Muir, an environmental champion and pioneer of conservation, once wrote: "In every walk with nature one receives far more than he seeks." The boy knows this without having read it. When you're surrounded by wonders too great and marvelous for you, the only proper thing to do is slow down and quiet oneself, and then be open to receive far more than you imagined when you took that first step on the journey.

As we approach the week we call "Holy," from Palm Sunday through Maundy Thursday to Good Friday to Holy Saturday, I would encourage you to think of it as a walk in the woods... and slow down, and to quiet down. To recite once again the story of the lengths our Lord would go to reveal his love for us... this is holy ground we're treading. To rush through it on the way to Easter would be to miss the essential mysteries that define the destination.

As part of that slow-down, quiet-down walk, consider joining us for worship on those days (the schedule is here in this newsletter and on our website). Quiet your soul... from the tumultuous noise that rages around us constantly... and reignite your hope in the One who is with us in all of it, leading us to far more than we seek.

In gratitude for you, and in hope of life renewed,

Pastor Stephan Sandness

Holy Week at OSLC

We invite you to once again immerse yourself in the sacred drama of Christ's death and resurrection by joining us for worship during this holiest week of the year:

Thursday, April 17, 6:26 P.M. Maundy Thursday worship, during which we commemorate Jesus' last supper with his disciples, his betrayal and his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. (service will be live-streamed, as well)

Friday, April 18, 6:26 P.M. Good Friday worship, during which we hear the story of Jesus' arrest, trial and crucifixion, gathering around the cross in confession. (service will be live-streamed, as well)

Sunday, April 20, 8:30 A.M. and 10:45 A.M. Easter, celebrating our Lord's defeat of death in his resurrection, with celebration of Holy Communion and special music for the day. The 8:30 service will be live-streamed over the internet, as well. Please join us between services for an Easter Breakfast served by the High School Youth Group (Free-will donation).

Whether in person or online, we as a community of faith will worship the One who raises us up! Join us...

Make A Joyful Noise ~ Sturgis Community Easter Cantata

The 2025 Easter Cantata Choir brings the gift of music to our community in its presentation of Blessed – A Holy Week

Journey Through the Beatitudes. The Easter Cantata performances are at 7:00 p.m. on Palm Sunday, April 13 and Tuesday, April 15 at Grace Lutheran Church, 1061 Sherman Street, in Sturgis. There is no charge for the concert, but a free-will offering will be accepted to help cover music costs.

Blessed explores Holy Week through the words of the Beatitudes. Through the beautiful music and lyrics of Pamela Stewart and Joe Raney, we see how Christ not only shared the Beatitudes in his Sermon on the Mount but lived out those words as He became one of us. The musical message varies from other cantatas, but the listener will be drawn into each scene in a very personal way.

Easter Vigil @ Outlaw Ranch

Led by Pastors Jeremy Duprey and Laura Beall

April 19, 2025, 1-3 PM

The Easter Vigil service is a celebration of Jesus' passage from death to life using deep symbols (new fire, spreading light, waters of baptism, etc.) and profound stories (creation, flood, dry bones, etc.) that proclaim God's salvation and love! We will explore these symbols and stories in creative ways at Outlaw Ranch. If the weather is nice we will be moving around the camp, so bring your outdoor shoes and walking sticks. This vigil will be an interactive experience for children/students and their families, and anyone else who joins us in the celebratory fun!

Lunch will begin at noon and the interactive service will be from 1-3.

Lunch is $15 per person. Register On-line at <https://www.losd.org/easter-vigil>

And the one who was seated on the throne said,
"See, I am making all things new."
~ Revelation 21:5

Dear friends in Christ,

Spring is a time of new beginnings! I love it when Easter falls in April, because we have a better chance at spring-like weather. Did you do some dreaming in February and March about Spring planting? I noticed that daffodils in my front garden are up over an inch—bright green after that last snow. It's fun in early Spring to envision planting something new that I haven't before—always something to learn. And anticipation is the best part.

As we approach Easter, we experience along with Jesus' followers the miraculous truth of new life from what seemed to be dead. Perhaps you, like me, think about what it means to live as Easter people. When things in our lives look bleak, together we affirm that we can always count on God to bring new life in ways that we can't even imagine. We pray for trust....

As a congregation, we have many wonderful things to look forward to in the days ahead. On April 13, as we observe Palm Sunday, we will welcome New Members to our congregation! New members are formally received into membership twice a year at Our Savior's—generally in April and November. We look forward to getting to know each other and serving together in God's mission through this church. And as we enjoy Celebration Sunday on April 27, we will give thanks for the opportunities that people of all ages have had this school year to learn something new.

What new things do you envision for our congregation in the days ahead? God bless your dreaming....

Peace ~
Deacon Laura Lee Campbell
