February 2025

Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up the other; but woe to one who is alone and falls and does not have another to help. Again, if two lie down together, they keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone? And though one might prevail against another, two will withstand one. A threefold cord is not quickly broken. (Ecclesiastes 4:9-13)

Dear Friends,

For the first 23 years of my ministry (in other words, before I started serving among you here at OSLC) every congregation I was a part of conducted their Annual Congregational Meeting near the end of January. I was overjoyed to inherit a different way of doing things when I arrived here! It makes much more sense to me to have us nail down our budget for the coming year in November, so we don't skate along for almost a month without a spending plan. And, I like splitting up our congregational business with two semi-annual meetings... one for budget stuff and another in the Spring more focused on leadership and receiving ministry reports. It works well!

Having said all that, however, I still can't help but use these first weeks of a new year to reflect on where we've been, who we are and what God might be calling us toward 😊 During these ruminations over the last days, I've been wondering: What makes a church The Church? Obviously, we define a church as a congregation... a gathering... of folks who have heard Jesus' call to listen to him, to trust him, to follow him out into the world, making us one with all of the other such congregations of Jesus-followers. It's all of these congregations of Christians that make us The Church.

But what are the most fundamental defining characteristics of a congregation of Jesus-followers? Is it their obvious moral and ethical superiority over those outside its bounds? Good luck with that.

Is it their advanced wisdom and effectiveness in determining correct policies and procedures for the advancement of human decency, justice and the general well-being of all in our towns, cities, states and nations? If so, it's eluded me.

Is it the warmth of its welcome to any and all who seek what they could find nowhere else... an enfolding sense of belonging and place, where grace reigns and judgement finds no purchase? We'd like to think so, and yet...

It seems to me that more than anything, a congregation of Jesus-followers is, at its most basic, an association of aspirants... people aspiring to be an active part of this promised release, freedom and wholeness that Jesus spent so much of his life teaching about, lifting up and exemplifying. You see, here's the thing: agreement on what we're aiming for is what must define us. We might differ in all sorts of ways on what mechanisms to implement to achieve the goal, and what roads to take to get us where we're going. But what makes us Church is the compelling vision of God's Kingdom, in which all are loved, all are forgiven, and all are redeemed from a life of death!

As I was listening to the new heat pump being installed recently on the north side of our church building (lots of noises, trust me) I was thinking about the words from the fourth chapter of Ecclesiastes, where the writer says, "Again, if two lie down together, they keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone?" Indeed. How can a nearly $40,000 heat pump replacement happen in mere weeks, unless multiple folks come together to make it happen? And how can one person have supplied the means necessary for our congregation to finish out 2024 "in the black," meeting all of our financial obligations and providing us with the means to not only keep our own ministries moving forward but to powerfully support our partners like Woyotan's warming bus ministry in Rapid, the St. Dymus Prison Ministry in Sioux Falls and the Artemis House women's crisis center here in Spearfish... each to the tune of over $3200.00 at year's end? One person couldn't. One person didn't.

But we did... together... letting gratitude move our generosity and keeping our eyes focused on things that really matter, namely, following Jesus into a future where his reign is immanent and evident.

You see, the money isn't the thing. Balanced budgets aren't the thing. Projects like the heat pump replacement aren't the thing. The heat pump and the rapid in-gathering of gifts that made it possible, along with a year-end balanced budget, are born of a desire on the part of a whole bunch of folks to make this house and the congregation who gathers here a warm, welcoming outpost of grace in this place, at this time, and on into this uncertain future. Sometimes we fuss and fight over the map on how to get there... but we're aiming for one destination. In that, I count myself most blessed to be on this road with you.

Us, the neighbor at our side, and the Holy Spirit of God moving us. "A three-fold cord is not quickly broken."

In love and gratitude for you,

Pastor Stephan Sandness

Dear friends,

We are now a month into our new year's journey. As we all know, each journey of our lives leads us through a variety of terrain. Sometimes we go around a bend and encounter joyous moments of celebration or discovery.

Sometimes we climb a hill or meet a cliff that brings sorrowful moments of loss or fear. We find ourselves asking the questions, "Where is God in hard times?" and "What does it mean to be faithful?"

In these first four months of 2025, our women are engaging with a Bible study written by Denise Rector entitled "Faithfulness" which focuses on those very questions. We are exploring the journeys of: 1) Ruth & Naomi in the Old Testament book of Ruth, 2) David in the 22nd chapter of the book of Psalms, 3) Peter and Cornelius in the New Testament book of Acts, and 4) Jairus and the Woman who is bleeding in the New Testament gospels Matthew, Mark, and Luke.

Delving into these stories of God's people, sparks our conversation about having faith today, even in difficult times. We are able to affirm that it is God who is faithful, allowing us to be real in sharing our journeys' difficulties and joys and learning to "turn to Scripture and lean on each other."

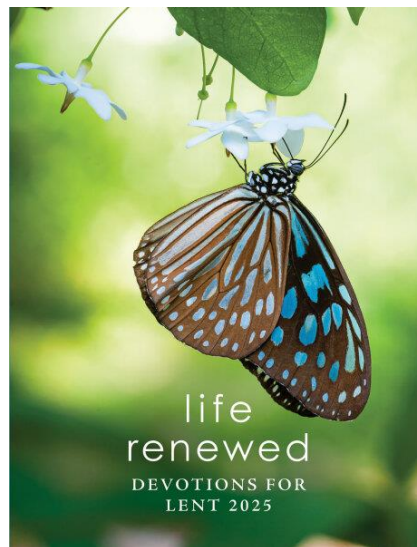

If you are interested in participating in this Bible study, let me connect you!

Peace be with you as we journey ~

Life Renewed: Devotions for Lent 2025

By Stacey Nalean-Carlson (Contributor)...

God brings new life in unexpected ways and in the most unlikely situations. This devotional reflects on how God does this in the creation of all things, the Israelites' rescue from slavery in Egypt, the dry bones and Ezekiel, the fiery furnace, the big fish and Jonah, and more.

Life Renewed provides devotions for each day from Ash Wednesday to the Resurrection of Our Lord/Vigil of Easter (March 5 to April 19, 2025). The devotions begin with evocative images and brief scripture readings drawn from traditional Easter Vigil texts. The writers then bring their diverse voices and pastoral wisdom to the texts with quotations to ponder, reflections, and prayers.

Look for these free Lenten devotional booklets to be available for pick-up on the Ushers' counter near the sanctuary doors at Our Savior's beginning February 19. We hope you'll grab one for your household! Electronic copies are available for purchase for the Kindle, Nook, or through Google play. Follow this link, choose your format, purchase a copy for your preferred reading app/device.

Friendship Ministry

Extending the love of Christ
from Friend to Friend

Friendship Ministers are lay people who make themselves available as listening and supportive friends. They are present through visits, phone calls, conversations at church, at work and in the community. Relationships vary from a one-time visit to a few weeks, a few months or years. Confidentiality is a core component of this ministry.

To learn how you can receive care from a Friendship Minister, call Nancy at 605-645-2723. The care you will receive is confidential and free.

Are you interested in serving as a Friendship Minister? Training is simple and flexible; call Dn. Laura (605-642-3715) for more information.

Thank you to Esther Circle for the lovely, healthy breakfast at the General Meeting January 9. The food was appreciated by all in attendance! Also, we appreciated the speaker Laura Feige, very much as she gave an exceptional talk on Alzheimer's based on her work with the local Alzheimer's Association. We learned a great deal and she was able to provide us after the talk with the contact for the local Alzheimer's Association should anyone be interested in helping or have questions related to their loved one.

The February WELCA Board Meeting is February 5 at 9:30am at church. If you have any information or questions for the Board please let me know prior to this meeting if possible. Thank you.

Reminder: All of our church Circles, Esther, Deborah, and Ruth, are comprised of hard working ladies who strive to learn about & fulfill the Christian values of our Lord. We welcome everyone who would like to be part of a Circle. Food, fellowship, and spiritual study/discussion are all part of each Circle's monthly meeting. In addition, all of these Circles actively help with the ongoing yearly needs of our church and community.

Personal Care Kit

When LWR distributes Personal Care Kits, it's often to people who have lost everything. In the wake of an earthquake, or having fled from violence as their homes were overtaken, they clasp a towel from a faraway place, with a bar of soap, a toothbrush...and washing up, they know that they have not been forsaken by the world.

Deborah Circle would like to encourage anyone to donate articles or a kit and put in the basket at the back of the fellowship hall. Personal Care Kits are due Feb. 15.

Include the following items in each Personal Care Kit:

- ❖ One bath-size towel (maximum 52" X 27"), dark color recommended
- ❖ Two bars of new soap, bath size in original wrapping
- ❖ One toothbrush, adult-size in its original packaging
- ❖ One sturdy comb, remove packaging
- ❖ One large metal nail clippers (attached file optional), remove packaging

Wrap all the smaller items in the towel and tie securely with ribbon or yarn. Do not enclose in plastic bag.

Recent letter from our scholarship student in Guatemala.

Dec 2024

Dear Godparents of Our Savior's Lutheran Church,

It's a pleasure to write to you again. I hope that you are all doing well and are in good health. In this letter, I want to share what I've been up to these past few months.

I'm doing well in school. We are just finishing up the school year, we only have three weeks left. We have been busy at school with different activities, such as the school's anniversary. As part of the celebration, there was a queen pageant to select Miss CEDUCA to represent our school. We also had Miss Independence and Miss Silver Anniversary, because the school is celebrating its 25-year anniversary. I participated in a regional dance with our classroom's candidate. It was a lot of fun. In September, we celebrated Guatemala's 203rd independence, and we decorated our classroom with patriotic symbols. My classmates went on a trip for the symbolic "running of the torch", which is a tradition here in Guatemala.

My tutoring sessions are going well. Whenever I have a question, I am able to get it resolved at my tutoring sessions. This helps me to better understand my schoolwork. I have an hour and half long session every week.

In the Reading Circles, we read a book together. I like the book we are currently reading. I love to read, even though sometimes I get lazy and don't do it. Right now, I am reading three books at once. We do different activities as part of the Reading Circle, all based on our reading. I have a lot of fun. For my volunteer hours, I help the ladies at the Elder Center to make tortillas, cook and wash dishes.

During my school vacation this year, I am going to try to find a job to help with some of the expenses around the house. I also would like to spend some time with my friends. For Christmas, I want to spend time with my family. It's our tradition to make tamales and fruit punch for Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve. I also want to read some of the books that are on my reading list and watch movies. I have a lot of plans for my time, and I hope that my three months of vacation are enough time.

Thanks to God, my family and I are doing well. We are healthy and together, even though there are sad moments sometimes.

Lastly, I want to thank you all for my scholarship. It has helped me a lot in my schooling. I hope that everything is going well for you all. I wish you all good health. May your lives be full of blessings. I say goodbye now.

With much love and care,

Marta Concepcion Cali Damian
